Overview

The Porthole is a recently refurbished two bedroom apartment located conveniently close to Dartmouth's bustling town centre and just 2 mins walk to Bayards Cove, famous for the departure point of the Pilgrim Fathers and the filming of the 70s hit TV series, The Onedin Line!

This stylish, contemporary apartment has been carefully renovated and now affords a comfortable and relaxing environment and gas central heating. The decor has been set with a nautical theme in mind; from the wonderful porthole shaped mirror and the powder blue boat cabin seat cushions, to the lifebuoy bath mat in the little loo and the model sailing ship featured in the old fireplace. The open plan lounge/dining/kitchen is a lovely light and airy space that can accommodate the whole family with ease. The Porthole is the perfect getaway for those looking for spacious and relaxing accommodation, and it's just a few steps into the town along the beautiful River Dart!

Living

The lounge is a lovely light and airy room with a large bay window with window seat that looks out onto Newcomen Road with its eclectic mix of shops and small businesses. There is a large sofa bed that can seat up to four

Kitchen/Dining

The kitchen is modern and the doors are glossy white with stainless steel handles. The worktops are a black granite finish. There is fridge with freezer compartment, dishwasher, microwave and a built in oven and halogen hob.

Sleeping

In the master bedroom, there is a double bed with beautiful blue striped satin throws. Two bedside cabinets and bedside lamps, wardrobe, dressing table and chest of drawers.

The second bedroom has two single beds with matching blue satin throws. One bedside cabinet with a bedside lamp, wardrobe, dressing table, chest of drawers and ample high-level suitcase storage.

Bathroom

The bathroom has a bath with shower over. Single wash basin with light and shaver point over, and WC.

A separate WC cloakroom is located on the corridor again with basin with light and shaver point over.

Utility Room

This is a useful addition to the apartment and there is a washing machine and a hanging dryer to dry out your beach towels and swim gear.

Outside

There is no outside space with this property.

Parking

There is a parking permit for an undesignated space at the Mayor's Avenue car park in town and the Park and Ride at the top of Dartmouth. Please note this permit is only valid from the beginning of May to end September.
